Now she can drink. "Never give up!" says the crow.

The Crow and the Pitcher

故事全文 · 教師一次讀完用

One hot day, a thirsty crow flew and flew. She wanted a drink of water.

Then she saw a tall pitcher. There was a little water at the bottom. "Water!"

She put her beak into the pitcher. It was too short. She tried again. Still too short. She could not reach the water.

The crow felt tired and cross. But she did not fly away. She stopped. She looked around. And then she had an idea.

She picked up a small stone and dropped it into the pitcher. Plop!

She picked up another stone. Plop! One stone, two stones, three stones… and the water went up, up, up.

At last the water was high enough. The crow drank and drank. "Never give up!" she said.
